

Capricorn: I Use

4

Saturn rules this number of process and stabilization. Capricorn's and 4's don't cut corners, never quit when the going gets tough, always keeping security a top priority.

December 20 ~ January 20

10th House:

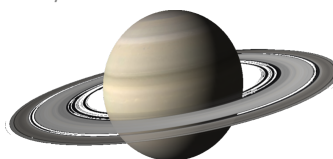

Career, Public Self, Recognition

The symbol for Capricorn represents the sea goat, a goat with fish's tail. It represents the long climb from the bottom of the ocean to the top of the mountain. Saturn's symbol is a cross atop a crescent/sickle. The cross is associated with worldly matter, while the sickle represents its reaping.

Capricorn is ruled by Saturn, planet of boundaries, responsibility, limitations, and success. Saturn represents the father figure, the rule maker, and authority. A strong Saturn gives us strength to attain our goals.

Ace of Pentacles
The Winter Solstice
December 20, 21, or 22

Zodiacactivities for Capricorn

- List all your achievements
- Find or be a mentor
- Get a bone density test
- Discover ways you are your own best parent
- Take your boss to lunch
- Be a good steward
- Exfoliate your skin, especially your knees
- Get serious about something
- Discover your inner board of directors
- Lead by example
- Read a biography of someone you admire
- Work with crystals
- Schedule your annual teeth cleaning

Pachouli is a time-tested plant of Saturn noted for its calming, antibacterial, and grounding properties.

Pachouli is often included in blends for the skin, which Capricorn rules.

The only bonds on me are the ones I allow. I create my world.

The Devil is usually assigned to Capricorn and The World to Saturn. Try reversing these correspondences, associating The Devil with Saturn and Capricorn with The World. Saturn represents limitations; Capricorn represents worldly achievement. Fortunately, the tarot is always open to interpretation.

2

Pentacles
0-9.59 ◦
1st Decan
Capricorn
December
20 - 31

3

Pentacles
10-19.59 ◦
2nd Decan
Capricorn
January
1-11

4

Pentacles
20-29.59 ◦
3rd Decan
Capricorn
January
11-20

The Mountain Goat is the major animal totem for Capricorn. This sure-footed climber is graceful and fearless. Other animals that climb or build are suitable totems, as well.

Beavers are a good choice for Capricorn water totems. Monkeys, tree frogs, even tree crabs are notable climbers. An amazing bird architect is the sociable weaver.

The garnet is a deep red stone which stimulates desires and uplifts moods. It keeps fears and insecurities at bay. This is the businessman's stone, very lucky in the attainment of goals.

