PROPHETIC DREAMS LINEN SPRAY

- 10 drops Grapefruit (relaxing)
- 10 drops Lavender (calming)
- 10 drops Basil (comforting)
- 5 drops Clary Sage (relieves emotional tension)
- 1 oz. vodka or alcohol
- 1/2 oz distilled water

Blend in a 2 oz. glass spray bottle. Do not spray on skin as grapefruit and basil can cause photosensitivity. Keep away from children and pets. This blend is best if sits for a couple of weeks to allow the aroma to mature.

New Moon in Sagittarius

There's a clarion call in the air telling you and everyone else to get it right and play it straight this time, but not everyone is listening. Make sure you are. Last month's cloak and dagger maneuvers are old hat and if you conspicuously clean house and let in the air, you'll be in the vanguard of the initiative now. Your message needn't be subtle, just sincere, as nuanced maneuvers aren't yet as important as getting the direction right. What you begin now, begin in truth and with foundations laid on what you know and not what you speculate. Well begun is half done, so launch from a firm footing and you'll be out in front.
